All Saints' Sunday

Preparation for Worship

Almighty God, you have knit together in one communion and fellowship the mystical body of your Son, Christ our Lord. Give us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all their goodness, strength, and courage, so that we may come to those ineffable joys that you have prepared through the cross and resurrection of Jesus Christ, through whom we pray. Amen.

Gathering and Preparing for God's Word

Welcome and Announcements

Leader: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.
People: And also with you.

Minute for Stewardship — Whit Walker

Prelude — Now All the Vault of Heaven Resounds/I'll Praise My Maker — Monsell

* Call to Worship — Revelation 21:2–4

Leader: I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God.
People: I heard a loud voice from the throne saying:
See, the home of God is among mortals.
Leader: He will dwell with them as their God;
they will be his people, and God himself will be with them.
People: God will wipe every tear from their eyes.
Death will be no more,
for the first things have passed away.
All: Let us worship God!

* Hymn 326 — "For All the Saints" — Sine Nomine

* Prayer of Confession

Eternal God,
in every age you have raised up women and men
to live and die in faith.
We confess that we are indifferent to your will.
You call us to proclaim your name, but we are silent.
You call us to do what is just, but we remain idle.
You call us to live faithfully, but we are afraid.
In your mercy, forgive us.
Give us courage to follow in your way,
that joined with those from ages past,
who have served you with faith, hope, and love,
we may inherit the kingdom you promised in Jesus Christ.
Amen.

* Assurance of Pardon

Leader: Friends, believe the good news of the gospel.
People: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

* Gloria Patri, Hymn 581 — Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen, Amen.

Sermon — "Jesus Began to Weep"

Responding to God's Word

* Affirmation of Faith — The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell;
the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost;
the holy catholic Church; the communion of saints;
the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body;
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory, forever. Amen.

Nominations for Elders

Commitment Sunday is November 8

Our stewardship campaign theme this year is "Living Waters," and we are calling on all WPC members, as they are able, to answer the "Living Waters Challenge." If half increase their pledge by $500, and the other half increase their pledge by $300, we will fund one additional office staff position, support our growing youth and children's ministries, and maintain our giving with our mission partners. Every pledge matters, and every pledge makes a difference! Your pledge to our stewardship campaign is the living water that sustains our church and allows us to meet the needs not only of the families of Westminster but also the families of so many others in Greenville County that count on Westminster Presbyterian Church. Thank you for your generosity with Westminster!

VOLUME LXXIX | November 1, 2026 | No. 30

From the Pews, Chris Carsten

One of my earliest memories about my family history centers around visiting the rural birth place of my paternal grandfather. Although the old home was long gone, the thing that I remember most about the home site was peering down into the depths of the old open hand dug well. It seemed huge and forbidding to me. Likewise, the thought of drinking out of that dark hole in the ground was not appealing at all. My grandfather, however, laughed, and recounted fond memories of drawing cool clean water from that well. He also recounted that one of the worst punishments he ever received as a child himself was for throwing a rock into the well, thereby risking its potential contamination. His father made sure to "impress" upon him just how important that well was to their family and how they depended on it and needed to care for and steward it and how thankful they should be for the water it provided.

Isaiah 12:3 says, "Therefore with joy you will draw water from the wells of salvation." For over twenty years now, my family has been drawing from the Westminster well of salvation. It has provided us with the "living water" that Jesus offered the Samaritan woman by the well in the fourth chapter of John. Westminster has celebrated with us in times of great joy and supported us in times of profound loss. It has helped us grow and learn of God's love. It has helped us raise and instruct our children. It has provided for them as they attended Sunday school, went on retreats and mission trips, played basketball, and ate congregational meals. They learned what it means to be part of a Church family and they learned the importance of supporting the Church both physically and financially. We now get to watch as they teach their children these same lessons, some drawing from this very same well.

As we now approach Commitment Sunday, I am thankful for all that Westminster's well of living water has provided my family. And just as my grandfather was a steward of his homesite's well, we will continue to pledge our support to the source of our family's spiritual well. I hope you will too.

Connect and Grow Group

On the second Sunday of every month Mandy Pruitt will host a gathering in the Sanctuary Atrium to connect with New Members and members hoping to be more involved. We hope this is a space where you can build new friendships with other members of the church, learn about WPC's ministries, and engage in the life of the church at WPC. If you are interested in learning more, contact Mandy Pruitt. The first gathering will be Sunday November 8 at 10a.

For Such a Time as What? Exploring Esther
October 11 - November 15
Room 209 and Streaming
Facilitated by Leigh Stuckey

Esther is a strange book. God is never named in it, yet it has been read for centuries as a story of deliverance: an orphaned Jewish girl becomes queen of Persia, a royal decree threatens her people with destruction, and everything turns on whether she will speak. Over six Sundays, we will read Esther chapter by chapter, setting its palace intrigue against the world of the Persian Empire that produced it and listening for the questions it still asks of us. What does faithfulness look like when God seems silent? What does courage cost when power is unpredictable? And when Mordecai tells Esther she may have come to her position "for just such a time as this," what time does he mean — and what time might we be living in? Each week will include a lecture and time for questions. All are welcome, whether you know the story well or are opening it for the first time.

Discussion Class
September 20 - December 13
Room 212
November 1 facilitated by Laura Williams Sanders

Join us each week for a discussion-based Sunday School class to dive into a weekly topic and scripture passage. All are welcome to join us on a journey of faith and fellowship - come every week or come when you can. Topics change every week, and the class is facilitated by rotating members.

326 For All the Saints

The broad and sweeping tune with which this hymn is so closely identified was created to be sung during a reverent but dramatic procession at the beginning of an All Saints' Day service, an enacted representation of the enduring "fellowship divine" celebrated by this text.

TEXT: William Walsham How, 1864
MUSIC: Ralph Vaughan Williams, 1906

375 Shall We Gather at the River

A Baptist pastor wrote this hymn while seated at his parlor organ. Created as an alternative to gloomy "river of death" hymns, it is a celebration of the "pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb" (Revelation 22:1 KJV).
