

Seventh Sunday after Pentecost
Preparation for Worship

O God, light of the minds that know you, life of the souls that love you, strength of the thoughts that seek you: Help us so to know you that we may truly love you, so to love you that we may fully serve you, whose service is perfect freedom; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Gathering and Preparing for God’s Word

Welcome and Announcements

Leader: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.
People: And also with you.

Prelude Prelude in Classic Style Young

- * Call to Worship
- Leader: All who walk in shadow, come into the light!
People: God’s Word lights the way for us.
Leader: God has promised to abide with us.
People: So let us commit to walk in God’s ways.
Leader: All who are afflicted, ensnared by the world, come give praise to God.
People: God is the joy of our heart, our sure and certain comfort, come what may!
All: Let us worship God!

* Hymn 35 "Praise Ye the Lord, the Almighty" LOBE DEN HERREN

- * Prayer of Confession
- God of our ancestors, since the beginning you have called people to live together in community, to live together as one family of faith, and to care for one another as siblings in Christ. We confess our selfishness overwhelms our generosity. We turn away from trust, and regard one another with suspicion and enmity, we harbor jealousy against our neighbors, seeing only how they might serve our own interests. We make idols out of fairness and fail to pursue justice. We pass down our shortcomings to the next generations. Forgive us, Lord. Help us be the community we owe to one another. Open our hearts to forgive when we’ve been wronged, make right when we’ve done harm, and struggle for peace among all people. Amen.

* Assurance of Pardon

Leader: Friends, believe the good news of the gospel.
People: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

* Gloria Patri, Hymn 581 GLORIA PATRI

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen, Amen.

Sermon "Sale of a Birthright"

Responding to God’s Word

* Affirmation of Faith The Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

WORSHIP NOTES

NURSERY

Childcare is available for infants through 4K. Our nurturing staff of experienced caregivers and parent volunteers offers a welcoming environment for children. The Nursery is located on the mezzanine level. The entrance is at Westminster Drive, at the columbarium or near the Westminster Weekday School offices. The Family Lounge, located down the stairs from the front office and straight down the hallway on the right, is available for any child caregiver and includes worship livestream, comfortable seating, and a changing table.

WORSHIP BAGS

Each Sunday we offer worship bags in the Atrium for children. The worship bags are designed to include reusable items that engage children in open ended play during worship. While children attend worship with their families, they can participate in worship and play to make meaning in faith. Please return the zipper bag and its contents each Sunday.

A GENTLE REMINDER

Summer is an opportunity for vacations, the beach, and time with family and friends. But even when we are away, the church remains active with our children and youth ministries going strong, the weekday school running throughout the summer, and numerous outside groups using our facilities. In addition, our mission partners depend on us all year long. If possible, we ask you to keep your giving up to date. Thank you for your generosity and faithfulness to God's work at Westminster.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR IT'S ELEMENTARY!

WPC's weekly after-school faith formation program, It's Elementary, begins in September. Each Wednesday afternoon from 2:15-4:30p, children in grades 1st-5th will grow in their faith, deepen their Bible knowledge, experience worship, and participate in witness and service learning. Volunteers are at the heart of It's Elementary! No teaching required - just helping hands, listening ears, and a joy for children. We are in need of volunteers who are able to donate their time each week or every other week to this special program. Sign up to volunteer in the Harbinger Hub.

WESTMINSTER BOOK CLUB

The Westminster Book Club will not meet in July. Our next meeting will be Tuesday, August 4, (6:30p) and the book reviewed will be In Love: A Memoir of Love and Loss by Amy Bloom. Kathryn Algary will lead the discussion. All are welcome to attend!

We acknowledge that faithful giving may be offered to Westminster Presbyterian Church in a variety of ways. If you give electronically or by other means, please feel free to place an Acknowledgement of Giving card—found in the Ritual of Friendship—in the offering plate as a sign of your worship and offering to God.

VOLUME LXXIX | JULY 12, 2026 | No. 15

From the Pews, Rob Morgan

One of my guilty pleasures is occasionally watching a psychological thriller - the type of movie that makes your heart race as the lead character(s) slowly step into that dark room where they heard a strange noise and feel compelled to check it out. The director has taken us on a journey to this crucial point in the story, one where the viewers share similar thoughts:

“Why would you do this?”
“Don’t go in there!”
“Where is the light switch?”

Thankfully our lives aren’t typically the source material for a film genre, but we’re all on a journey that occasionally feels similar to those pivotal movie moments. Sometimes we find ourselves in the dark. What should we do in those situations?

The playwright George Bernard Shaw is generally credited with coining the phrase “shot in the dark,” by now universally understood to mean taking some type of action without having clarity or guidance. But are we truly lacking such information? Surely life isn’t a series of shots in the dark.

The word “darkness” appears three times and “light” appears five times in the first five verses of Genesis. The framework is as simple as life is complex. Darkness and light. As humans we periodically find ourselves in dark places. As Christians we have access to a light that can guide us through these troubling times. Where do we turn when we need help, when the path is unclear? God’s word. Scripture is the path that will guide us out of the darkness.

In the span of seven verses in Psalms 119, we see words like “laws,” “decrees,” “statutes,” and “precepts.” Various translations describe “rules,” “commandments,” and “instructions.” This passage does not meddle in subtle hints nor allegorical messages. Our directive is clear as disciples of Christ. Armed with God’s love and steadfast in our adherence to scriptural doctrine, we are blessed with the tools needed to navigate this journey.

May we all be well versed, blessed by the everlasting light of our Lord and Savior.
